

Overview

Whether you are looking for interactive tutorials on complex workflow software, or micro modules on common workplace applications, TutorPro's off-the-shelf Courseware is the perfect solution. It is ready-to-use, packaged as AICC or SCORM 1.2 or, if you have the TutorPro LMS, we publish for you!

We are constantly updating and refreshing our library with new simulations and live content. If you are looking for something not included in the list below, please just drop us a line! Here is a preview of our current Roadmap.

Understanding our Concepts of Learning

TutorPro offers two concepts of eLearning: application simulation (AS) and live content (LC).

Application Simulation (AS):

TutorPro's AS modules are created using TutorAuthor NG and Adobe Captivate. Despite being in a simulated environment, these modules are all highly interactive ensuring that the adult learner is never forced into a passive learning experience. Each module is accompanied by a knowledge check to increase information retention.

Live Content (LC):

TutorPro's LC modules are developed with TutorPro's Live Content Studio. Live Content is eLearning which takes place in the application as learners complete workflow. A series of balloon tips guide users, step-by-step, through workflow in the actual application. No screenshots or simulations. At the end of the module the learner has mastered the process, and real workflow has moved forward.

System Requirements:

Depending on the courses and versions you require from the TutorPro Courseware Library there may be specific system requirements. Your account manager will send any environment-specific information you might need, and work with you to ensure a seamless rollout.
